

NOTE: Effective immediately, the following information must be posted on the landing page of your program. You must submit (1) a PDF scan of your webpage including the URL of the landing page of your website OR (2) the document sheet containing the information and the URL to the landing page of your website where the information can be found.

CORE standard A.5 The program shall foster continuing public awareness and confidence about academic quality by providing information routinely to the public on its performance, including, but not limited to (1) student retention rate to include the number of students who enroll and graduate each year for a three-year period; (2) average time necessary to complete the program; (3) estimated cost of program attendance; (4) available scholarships; (5) employment rate of graduates within the first 6 months following graduation; (6) employment settings where graduates work; (7) eligibility for licensure by program graduates; (8) passing rates for a comprehensive measure of student learning (CRC exam or a combination of assessments such as a comprehensive exam or portfolio) the program uses to assess student learning across all CORE knowledge domains covered in the standards.